Making Security Sustainable

Organizations of all sizes across the globe are being targeted and attacked by nation states, individual hackers, hacktivist organizations, cyber criminals, and cyberterrorists. Multiple studies report that small and mid-sized organizations are easy targets for cyberattacks as they are less likely to have the programs, policies, technologies and resources available to defend against these attacks.

Many companies lack the resources or financial strength to recover from financial theft or a data breach that could result in millions of dollars in fines.

With a growing shortage of security experts, an increasing number of attacks and threats, and constant changes in technology, how can organizations build a sustainable program to address risk and respond to the growing threat?

NuFormat provides a comprehensive portfolio of security, risk and compliance solutions, consulting services and experienced resources. We deliver the core elements that are required when establishing a sustainable security, risk and compliance program.
